If you see this series of asterisks next to your name, you haven't paid your dues for 2018, and this is your last issue.

Don't let that happen! Send your $20 dues — today — to Mike Tearney, Treasurer, at 4890 McCowan's Ferry Road, Versailles, KY 40383. And remember, your national MARC membership must be kept current, too. Send your renewal directly to MARC headquarters in Michigan.

April 21 'Mystery Tour' is one you won't want to miss

The destination for the April 21 “Mystery Tour” organized by James and Carolyn Poe is a secret — it's a mystery, after all — but it's one you definitely won't want to miss. All we can pry out of them is that it's a 45-mile drive from Paris, Ky., with a visit to a unique attraction, followed by lunch.

To depart from Lexington, meet at McDonald's, just off Winchester Road near I-75, at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, April 21. We'll need to leave from there at 9 a.m. sharp. If you want to meet the group in Paris, be prepared to leave the McDonald's there at 9:30.

When it comes to a Poe tour, this much is certain: the route will be scenic; the destination will be memorable; then there's lunch with friends. What could be better?

Recap of Harrodsburg tour

by Jack Kubik

The morning of our March 24 tour to Harrodsburg certainly was not the spring morning we hoped for, but that didn't keep everyone home for the day. The group that headed out from Chick-Fil-A continued to grow until we numbered 24 for lunch at the Kentucky Fudge Company.

The tour route would have been awesome on a sunny spring day, but looking through the foggy windshield of a Model A wasn't bad either! A stop at Shaker Village gave us time to wander about the gift shop to see what was new and to chat with the ladies who schedule events there. Once we were back in our cars, the drive took us through country roads that brought us into Harrodsburg just in time for lunch.

The menu offered so many choices for sandwiches and treats that it took a while for everyone to order and to be seated and served. Luckily, that gave us time to take in the sights of the old pharmacy building and to catch up with our car buddies. The food was as good as anticipated and the room used by our group to eat was decorated in some awesome chalk art that we were happy to view.

We were joined by some newer club members for lunch. Steve Hale and his son, from Springfield, and Mark Bryant, from Harrodsburg, were introduced to everyone.

From there, we headed down the road to the Front Porch Craft and Antique Shop for a look around. A few treasures were found, purchased and taken to their new homes to be enjoyed.

The final stop for those who chose to complete the route was Sims Drug Store in Wilmore, which turned out to be another great place for lunch or an ice cream treat. Thanks to everyone who braved the weather and made the day's journey a pleasure!
