

Tour Woodford County on Mar. 16

On Saturday, March 16, we'll meet at Chick Fil-A on Madrone Way in Lexington (just off Harrodsburg Rd., outside Man o' War Boulevard).

Departing at 10 a.m., we'll travel through rural Woodford County. About 30 minutes later, we'll have a rest stop at Falling Springs Recreational Center in Versailles. We'll continue meandering until arriving for lunch at Ricardo's Grill and Pub around 11:15.

After lunch, those who are interested in shopping for antiques, arts and crafts can browse downtown Versailles shops such as Green Street Gifts, Oak & Moore, Marketplace on Main, and Bluegrass Traditions.

Like our February event, the March activity features a railroad theme for lunch — Ricardo's Grill and Pub, located in the town's historic train station in Versailles, on Frankfort Street.

Mike and Nancy Bradley are leading this outing.

Thanks to Joe and Kathy Litton for organizing this tour!

Don't drop out!

Take a moment to look at the address block on page 2 of this newsletter. If you see "(LAST ISSUE)" by your name, you will be dropped from our mailing list unless you send your $20 CKMARC dues to Mike Tearney, treasurer, at 4890 McCowan's Ferry Road, Versailles, KY 40383.

Be sure to keep your national membership current by sending your $50 payment directly to MARC headquarters in Michigan.

Note: The date for our tour to Perryville has changed to April 13.

News from the Model A Ford Foundation

Several Model A Fords have been donated to be sold for to benefit the expansion of the Model A Museum in Hickory Corners, Michigan. Volunteers are currently making the cars roadworthy to sell.

- A 1929 Tudor is on the sales floor already.
- A 1928 Tudor is undergoing repairs to its brakes, gas gauge, and gas tank, among other things, and should be ready shortly.
- A 1929 Fordor Blindback is in the queue for roadworthiness work.
- Two 1928 Phaetons are expected to be available to sell in the coming months.

If you would like information about these cars, or have a vehicle you'd like to donate to be sold to fund the
